Corporation for NATIONAL & COMMUNITY SERVICE ★★★

SOUTH DAKOTA

Meeting community needs in South Dakota. More than 4,300 people of all ages and backgrounds are helping to solve problems and strengthen communities through 26 national service projects across South Dakota. Serving with national and community nonprofit organizations, faith-based groups, schools, and local agencies, these citizens tutor and mentor children, coordinate after-school programs, build homes, conduct neighborhood patrols, organize local homeland security efforts, respond to disasters, and recruit and manage volunteers. This year, the Corporation for National and Community Service will provide more than $2,200,000 to support South Dakota communities through three major programs:

Senior Corps: More than 4,400 seniors in South Dakota contribute their time and talents in one of three programs: Foster Grandparents, who serve one-on-one with more than 2,400 young people who have special needs; Senior Companions, who help more than 800 other seniors live independently in their homes; and RSVP volunteers, who work with more than 800 local groups to meet a wide range of community needs.

AmeriCorps: This year, more than 70 individuals are serving in South Dakota communities as AmeriCorps members. In return, the members receive an education award of up to $4,725 to help pay for college or pay back student loans. To date, more than 350 South Dakota residents have qualified for education awards totaling more than $1,400,000. Two-thirds of AmeriCorps grants are made by the . National nonprofits, such as the Student Conservation Association, make other assignments. Other members serve in AmeriCorps*VISTA, and AmeriCorps*NCCC (National Civilian Community Corps).
